Practice 5.3

The tenure of an independent director does not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine years. Upon completion of the nine years, an independent director may continue to serve on the board as a non-independent director.

If the board intends to retain an independent director beyond nine years, it should provide justification and seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process.

Application	: Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	Presently, Dato' Lim Ghim Chai is an Independent Non-Executive Directors of the Company whose tenure has exceeded a cumulative term of nine (9) years. The Letter of Support and Recommendation from the Group Managing Director for the retention of Mr. Lim Ghim Chai as an Independent Non-Executive Director of the Company, together with the Fit and Proper Declaration Form completed and submitted by Dato' Lim, were tabled at the Nomination Committee Meeting held on 22 December 2025. The Nomination Committee had carefully evaluated his qualifications, experience, time commitment, existing directorships, independence and potential conflict of interest. Having been satisfied that Dato' Lim possesses the integrity, professionalism, and calibre necessary to exercise independent judgement in the Board's decision-making process, the Nomination Committee recommended the appointment of Dato' Lim Ghim Chai to the Board, notwithstanding his long service with the Company. The Board is of the view that, despite his long service with the Company, Dato' Lim Ghim Chai remains unbiased, objective, and independent in expressing his views and participating in the Board's decision-making. His tenure on the Board has not in any way compromised his objectivity or independent judgement in carrying out his responsibilities as a member of the Board and its Committees. In line with the Code, the Board has recommended that the approval of the shareholders be sought to re-appoint Dato' Lim Ghim Chai as an Independent Non-Executive Director of the Company at the forthcoming Annual General Meeting through a two-tier voting process.

The level and composition of remuneration of directors and senior management take into account the company's desire to attract and retain the right talent in the board and senior management to drive the company's long-term objectives.

Remuneration policies and decisions are made through a transparent and independent process.

Practice 7.1

The board has remuneration policies and procedures to determine the remuneration of directors and senior management, which takes into account the demands, complexities and performance of the company as well as skills and experience required. The remuneration policies and practices should appropriately reflect the different roles and responsibilities of non-executive directors, executive directors and senior management. The policies and procedures are periodically reviewed and made available on the company's website.

Application	: Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	The Company has adopted the Remuneration Policy and Procedures for Directors and Senior Management ("Remuneration Policy") which covers all aspects of remuneration for Directors and Senior Management staff with the objective to provide fair and competitive remuneration for the Company to attract, motivate and retain a high-quality team. The Remuneration Committee reviews the Remuneration Policy framework and recommends to the Board the remuneration packages for all Directors and senior management, taking into account the Group's financial performance, the skills, level of responsibilities, experience and performance of each individual, as well as sustainability-related management as a key performance indicator. The Board then determines the remuneration of the Directors, with any interested Directors abstaining from deliberations and voting on their own remuneration. The Directors' fees and benefits are recommended by the Board for approval by the Company's shareholders at the Annual General Meeting. The Remuneration Policy is available on the Company's website at http://www.cab.com.my.

Intended Outcome

Companies make informed decisions about the level of risk they want to take and implement necessary controls to pursue their objectives.

The board is provided with reasonable assurance that adverse impact arising from a foreseeable future event or situation on the company's objectives is mitigated and managed.

Practice 10.1

The board should establish an effective risk management and internal control framework.

Application	: Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	The Company is concerned over the risk which the Companies and its group of companies ("the Group") may be exposed in its operations and has therefore formulated a risk management policy for implementation across the Group. The primary responsibility of the Board in risk management is to assess and set the risk appetite within which Management should operate and ensure that there is an appropriate risk management framework to identify, analyse, evaluate, manage and monitor significant financial and non-financial risks. Risk appetite is defined as the amount of risk that the Group is willing to accept in pursuit of its value creation process.
